

hospitalitydesign

New Showrooms to Launch at New York's A&D Building

Apr 12, 2011

Three new showrooms are scheduled to debut in May 16th at the Architects & Designers (A&D) Building in New York as part of its Opening Night event. The new spaces include:

- Carlisle Wide Plank Floors, producers of restored and reproduced premium hardwood floors by skilled New England craftsmen. Specializing in wide plank boards cut from the core of the finest trees. (5th floor)
- Fantini USA (pictured), Italian-based manufacturer of high-end faucets and showerheads designed by the likes of Piero Lissoni and Naoto Fukasawa. (8th floor)
- Snaidero USA Living, distinctive bath vanities; closet, wardrobe, and wall systems; and interior doors in new architectural space. (8th floor)

Also part of the event are the following product launches:

- Dedon Outdoor Furniture, manufacturer of contemporary leisure furniture, handwoven from weather-resistant fiber at Poliform. (6th floor)
- Holly Hunt NY expands the HOLLY HUNT Studio line with a modern mix of more than 50 casegoods and upholstered pieces incorporating rich woods, metal detailing, and luxurious leathers and fabrics. New lighting fixtures by Allison Berger make it the largest product launch in HH's history. (1st and 2nd floors)
- Lualdi Doors, Italian producer of high-quality interior doors with an impressive collection by American architects David Rockwell, Dror Benshetrit, and Robert A.M. Stern at Poliform. (6th floor)